Jorgensen Announces April Listening Sessions

MADISON – State Representative Andy Jorgensen (D-Milton) today announced he will hold two listening sessions in April. The first listening session kicks off at 6:30p.m. on Tuesday, April 12th at the Plymouth Town Hall (8219 High Street). The second listening session will be held on Wednesday, April 13th at 9:00a.m. at Charming B's Coffee & More (819 E. High Street in Milton).

"Maybe you have questions about something you've seen in the news, or are facing a personal struggle. Maybe you're frustrated with state government, or have high praise for some new initiative. Whatever's on your mind – that's what I want you to share," said Jorgensen. "I'm ready and willing to listen, to learn, and to try to help."

At the April listening sessions, Jorgensen will again offer folks copies of the latest edition of the official state guidebook, the 2015-16 State of Wisconsin Blue Book. There is no direct cost for individuals wishing to pick up a Blue Book.

No appointment is needed to meet with Rep. Jorgensen during his in-district listening sessions. If you are unable to attend but wish to share your views, you can call Rep. Jorgensen toll-free at 888-534-0043 or email him at rep.jorgensen@legis.wi.gov.

Watch for announcements of upcoming listening sessions in your newspaper and on Jorgensen's newly-redesigned legislative website, http://legis.wisconsin.gov/assembly/43/jorgensen.
